Booking your Wedding

When you have chosen your date please contact us to confirm availability. We will be happy then to meet with you and show you around the hotel and go over your initial plans and ideas. We can provisionally hold the date for you for two weeks with no obligation after which a non-refundable £250.00 deposit is required in order to 'confirm' your booking.

Any bedrooms held in good faith by the Bride & Groom on their rooming list is the responsibility of the said party and are liable for any cancellations and no shows.

The prices shown here are for weddings taking place in 2008/09 and are subject to alteration. The price of your wedding will be confirmed to you at the booking stage.

Now you can sit down and relax! We recommend that you organise a meeting with us at the hotel 6 to 8 weeks prior to your big day to confirm all the details including menus, flowers and colour schemes etc. You may wish to come in anytime prior to this if you are more comfortable or if you have any questions or queries.

We require the final number of guests 7 days prior to the wedding. This number will be taken as final and will be charged accordingly. Should guests confirmed not attend the wedding they will be charged for. Once we have received the final numbers, we will issue an invoice detailing all costs. The final balance for the wedding must be settled no later than 7 days before the wedding.

Wedding cancellations from 6 weeks prior to booked date will incur full charge of the wedding account and must be settled by the wedding party.

You may contact the hotel at any time on the details shown below. Good Luck with all your arrangements and remember to enjoy your day!
